

Advanced Federal Services Corporation
"Exceeding customers expectations: a measure of quality"

P.O. Box 5678
Anniston, AL 36205
Tel ( 256) 847-2050
Fax (256) 847-1964

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

POSITION TITLE
AREA CONSIDERATION
OPENING DATE
CLOSING DATE
FLSA STATUS

Maintenance Electrician
Internal / External
December 4, 2006

Non-Exempt w/Benefit Plan Packet

DUTIES:

Performs a variety of electrical trade functions such as the installation, maintenance, or repair of equipment, troubleshooting motor controls and balancing power loads on existing as well as new panels. Works from blueprints, drawings, layouts or other specifications. Finds fault and repairs a variety of high voltage (less than 600V) as well as low voltage circuitry. Provides on-call, after-hours emergency response to all facilities electrical problems. Utilizes a variety of electrical hand tools and measuring devices. Performs other duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Must have a high school diploma or GED and a minimum of 3 years practical experience as a maintenance electrician. Must have Fire Alarm Certification. Preference will be given to applicants with formal apprenticeship and advanced school certificates in electrical trades. Good communication, teamwork, and organizational skills required. Must be a citizen of the United States.

TO APPLY: Resumes and applications may be submitted in confidence to: Advanced Federal Services Corp., P.O. Box 5678, Anniston, AL 36205, emailed to smiths@cdpemail.dhs.gov, faxed to 256-231-5149 or delivered to the Security Desk at U.S. Department of Homeland Security, 61 Responder Drive on Ft. McClellan in Anniston. Only resumes and applications tendered during the opening will be given consideration.

Advanced Federal Services Corp. is an Equal Opportunity Employer